

PRESS RELEASE

The 2nd HCL International Junior Squash concludes

- Aryan Parekh won the U-19 category for Boys
- Sanya Vats and Sankalp Anand won the U-17 category for Girls and Boys, respectively
- Aishwarya Khubchandani and Aryan Khandelwal won the U-15 category for Girls and Boys, respectively
- Aasya Patel and Yuvraj Wadhvani won the U-13 category for Girls and Boys, respectively
- Anahat Singh and Ekambir Singh won the U-11 category for Girls and Boys, respectively

15 December 2017, Great Noida, India: HCL, a leading global conglomerate, today announced the successful conclusion of the 2nd HCL International Junior Squash championship – a Silver event under the Asian Squash Federation (ASF) calendar, rated five star by the Squash Racket Federation of India (SRFI). Hosted at the Shiv Nadar University, Greater Noida, this 5-day championship is one of the highest-level tournaments in the country. The winners were felicitated by Arjuna award winner Bombayla Devi Laishram, a celebrated Indian archer with a total prize purse of INR 5,49,000 across all categories.

The top players will receive ranking points for the matches played during this tournament, which will add up to determine their Asian ranking in the relevant age group. The Championship, which saw a participation from 261 players, was organised under the aegis of The Squash Racket Federation of India and the Uttar Pradesh Squash Rackets Association to promote the sport at a competitive level.

Sundar Mahalingam, Chief Strategy Officer, HCL Corporation and Shiv Nadar Foundation said, " I would like to congratulate all the players for their outstanding performance and hope that they will keep practicing so that next year the quality of their game is raised further. This is the second time HCL has organized the Junior Squash Championship in order to promote the sport in our country. HCL's brand philosophy is to touch people's lives in ways that can have a transformative effect on their journey. We aim to continue supporting Squash as a sport in India in collaboration with SRFI."*

Harish Prasad, National Squash Development Officer at Squash Rackets Federation of India (SRFI) said, "It is always wonderful to see such young players walk into the court with the determination to show their best game. It was a great experience seeing these young talents battle each other for the title. Like always, HCL supported us with excellent facilities and helped us throughout to conduct the Championship in an efficient and time bound manner."*

The Championship was played in a knockout format followed by play-offs of the top 8 positions in all categories. The details of the winners and runners up are as follows:

Category	BU19	BU17	GU17	BU15	GU15	BU13	GU13	BU11	GU11
Winner	Aryan Parekh	Sankalp Anand	Sanya Vats	Aryan Khandelwal	Aishwarya Khubchandani	Yuvraj Wadhvani	Aasya Patel	Ekambir Singh	Anahat Singh
Runner-up	Rahul Baitha	Prithvi Singh	Amira Singh	Jay Vaknalli	Diksha Aurobindo	Rutva Samant	Kaavya Bansal	Gurveer Singh	Unnati Tripathi

About HCL

Founded in 1976 as one of India's original IT garage start-ups, HCL is a pioneer of modern computing with many firsts to its credit, including the introduction of the 8-bit microprocessor-based computer in 1978 well before its global peers. Today, the HCL Enterprise has a presence across varied sectors that include technology, healthcare and talent management solutions and comprises three companies - HCL Infosystems, HCL Technologies and HCL Healthcare. The enterprise generates annual revenues of over US $7.5 billion with more than 120,000 employees from 140 nationalities operating across 39 countries, including over 500 points of presence in India.

For further information, visit www.hcl.com