LUCKNOW, DECEMBER 30

REFUSING to react on comparisons being drawn between “lavish spending” in Safai Mahotsava in his home village and relief camps in Muzaffarnagar, Chief Minister Akhilesh Yadav said Monday that “big leaders were visiting camps only to create news.” “So what if they do not have a government here. We asked them to give suggestions, which we will implement. But while they were in competition to get on news channels, no one came forward with any suggestions whatsoever,” the CM said.
